

THE GONDOLIERS.

The above is the title of Gilbert and Sullivan's new opera. It was produced at the Savoy Theatre, London, Dec. 7th, for the first time, and was a decided success. It is said to be the best since "The Mikado." The music is light and catching, while the libretto is in Gilbert's best manner. One song describes a democratic Utopia thus:

Lord chancellors were cheap as sprats;
And bishops in their shavel hats
Were plentiful as tabby cats.
In point of fact too many.

Ambassadors cropped up like hay;
Prime ministers, and such as they,
Grew like asparagus in May.
And dukes were three a penny.

On every side field-marshals gleamed,
Small beer were lords lieutenant deemed;
With admirals the ocean teemed
All round his wide dominions.

And party leaders you might meet
In twos and threes in every street.
Maintaining with no little heat
Their various opinions.

Voyage of the H. Hackfeld.

The German bark H. Hackfeld, Capt. Wolters, which arrived on Wednesday, sailed from Liverpool August 31, 1889. Had light variable winds down to the trades, thence a light north-east wind; was thirty-five days to the equator, which was crossed in longitude 26 deg. west; fresh south-east trades to 23 deg. south, where they met with strong south-west winds. Was seventy-two days to Cape Horn. While off there fell in with the iron full-rigged ship Young Robert, on fire, and already abandoned. Was twenty-one days from 30 deg. in the Atlantic to 50 deg. in the Pacific. To 48 deg. in the South Pacific had a regular hurricane; the vessel was on her beam ends and damage was done to the sails. From port to the equator in the Pacific was 119 days, passing it in 113 deg. west. Got north-east trades in 12 deg. north and kept them until arrival off port. Captain Wolters, her commander, is well known in Honolulu, having been here several times.

Samoan Consulships.

A report was recently circulated by a semi-official German journal, to the effect that Knapp, the German ex-Consul, whose arbitrary conduct nearly brought on a war, was to be returned to Apia. The report created something of a ripple in Washington, and Secretary Blaine was soon assured that there was no truth in the story. Knapp has, however, been pensioned.

It is understood that as soon as the Senate takes action on the Samoan treaty, Harold M. Sewall will be returned as Consul to Apia. Mr. Sewall is a Democrat, but the administration has about committed itself to the policy of returning him in recognition of the firm stand he took to protect American rights.

Coal News.

Dalgety & Co.'s monthly circular dated Newcastle, N. S. W., December 2d contains the following: For the Hawaiian Islands—the Merom with 1,650 tons coal, at 16s. freight, and Andrew Welch, with 1,389 tons, at 18s. freight, have gone forward. The Hesper, 664 register, and John Smith, 564 register, the former on ship's account and latter at 18s. freight, are loading, all for Honolulu. We despatched the Wrestler, with 845 tons coal, and are now loading the Newsboy, 559 register, both on ship's account, for Kahului.
